Message about your 2018 tax return
We're holding your refund until we finish reviewing your tax return

We've received your 2018 tax return, and are reviewing it to verify:

- the income you reported on your return,
• the income tax withholding amounts you reported on your return,
• the claims for tax credits you made on your return,
• the withholding claimed on your Social Security benefits,
• the household help you claimes, and/or
• the Schedule C income you claimed.

We'll hold your refund until we finish our review.

What you need to do

You do not need to take any action at this time.

We'll review your return.

Generally, we deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons to verify information we've received. If we do contact other persons, we'll generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name. The law prohibits us from disclosing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. Our need to contact other persons may continue as long as we're reviewing your return. If we do contact other persons, you have a right to request a list of those contacted.

If you didn't file a tax return for 2018

Someone else may have used your personal information to file this return. Please complete and sign Form 14039 (Identity Theft Affidavit), and mail it to us along with the requested documents. You can find this form online at www.irs.gov.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITC)

Assistance can be obtained from individuals and organizations that are independent from the IRS. The Directory of Federal Tax Return Preparers with credentials recognized by the IRS can be found at <http://irs.treasury.gov/rpo/rpo.isf>. IRS Publication 4134 provides a listing of Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) and is available at www.irs.gov. Also, see the LITC page at www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/litcmap. Assistance may also be available from a referral system operated by a state bar association, a state or local society of accountants or enrolled agents or another nonprofit tax professional organization. The decision to obtain assistance from any of these individuals and organizations will not result in the IRS giving preferential treatment in the handling of the issue, dispute or problem. You don't need to seek assistance to contact us. We will be pleased to deal with you directly and help you resolve your situation.
